

WOODBURY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Visit our website

www.woodbury.ossu.org

Weekly Notice – Wednesday, October 21, 2009

News and Announcements

Please remember that there is no school Thursday and Friday, October 22nd and 23rd to allow teachers to go to the annual Vermont NEA Convention. School resumes on Monday, October 26, 2009.

Don't forget the PTO Pumpkin Walk on Next Friday, October 30th at 6:30 pm

Parent Volunteers are needed Thursday, October 29th during the day to assist the students with carving the pumpkins during art classes.
Please contact the school if you are available even for a small portion of that day.

Visitor Announcement

Woodbury School has the pleasure of welcoming a Japanese student on Tuesday October 27th for the day. The student's name is Mio Nabeshima and she is a 21 yr old college student who is majoring in Psychology. She plays the KOT, which is a long instrument which is like a large harp and she will be bringing the instrument with her for the day. She may even treat the students to a story at all school morning meeting that day.

--	--